

Adam C. Lawson

Email: AdamChristopherLawson@gmail.com

Phone: 765-404-8772

Address: 5116 Saddle Drive, Lafayette, IN 47905

LinkedIn: linkedin.com/in/Adam-Lawson

Summary

Passionate application analyst and leader with 16+ years of clinical information systems experience over 27 specialties at 324 department locations with 380 providers and 2550 users.

Experience

Architect - Clinical Interoperability

Indiana University Health - Lafayette, IN

March 2020 - Present

Primary Responsibilities

- Produced solution designs that anchor to IT portfolio standards and ensure long-term operational and administrative efficiencies
- Provided proposals for operational designs with consideration of existing portfolio options and as well as new implementation and development
- Ensured delivery teams were equipped with the leadership and guidance necessary to successfully deliver solutions
- Facilitated operational and technological discussion with stakeholders to ensure optimal project architecture and implementation plans

Key Accomplishments

- Continued implementation of Referral Management solutions
- Coordinated efficiency measures for integrated patient-reported data points
- Facilitated improvements to virtual visit workflows and processes

Team Lead - Clinical Applications

Indiana University Health - Lafayette, IN

March 2010 - March 2020

Primary Responsibilities

- Lead the team of Application Analysts in development and support of clinical applications
- Managed technical implementation strategy across projects and systems
- Coordinated with infrastructure and support teams, product owners, and leadership
- Administered change control programs and managed Epic Data Courier and Epic Kuiper
- Managed release note process for updates and upgrades
- Defined and enforced development processes, goals, milestones, deliverables, and tools with respect to the overall technology direction and SDLC
- Developed and implemented solutions for business needs such as team project trackers, Occupational Medicine employer databases, and user ticketing requests
- Developed on-demand and ad-hoc reporting tools for executive leaders
- Coordinated and executed patient loads for ACO population health management
- Participated in Lean Rapid Improvement/Kaizen and Vertical Value Stream meetings in various roles including Subject Matter Expert
- Maintained Interconnect and proxy server configuration for Epic Print Service, RightFax, e-Prescribing, Epic Lucy, Epic Canto, Epic Haiku, and Care Everywhere functionality
- Served as the primary contact for all clinical modules in EpicCare Ambulatory
 - Orders, Navigators, Transmittal, Interfaces, Results Routing, In Basket, Printing and Print Server Management, Referrals, Interoperability, Prior Authorization, Data Courier, Documentation Tools, Scanning

Key Accomplishments

- Developed an EMR-agnostic patient arrival tool to decrease patient abandonment
- Implemented interoperability features such as Care Everywhere
- Selected as a presenter at Epic UGM 2012: e-Prescribing

- Integrated with 3rd-party applications using secure Clinical Context data exchange
- Completed Indiana University Health Emerging Leaders program

Sr. Clinical Application Analyst

Indiana University Health - Lafayette, IN

December 2007 - March 2010

Primary Responsibilities

- Executed project plans and deliverables at the direction of leadership
- Advised on project direction and priority
- Consistently delivered on-time and in-budget projects
- Mentored analysts and managed on-boarding for new employees
- Developed and maintained interfaces with hospital software

Key Accomplishments

- Coordinated software and workflow needs, and integration with new hospital software as Indiana University Health Arnett Hospital opened October 2008

Clinical Applications Analyst

Indiana University Health - Lafayette, IN

July 2006 - December 2007

Primary Responsibilities

- Analyzed user processes and defined change requests and enhancements
- Performed unit testing and defined functionality standards for quality assurance

Key Accomplishments

- Assisted in development of downtime procedure handbooks for application users
- Developed testing scripts for standardizing unit and integration testing

Clinical Application Educator

Arnett Clinic - Lafayette, IN

February 2003 - July 2006

Primary Responsibilities

- Developed and executed training curriculum for clinical applications
- Created and delivered classroom, virtual, and handout documentation for training
- Coordinated training scope and scheduling with providers, staff, and leadership

Key Accomplishments

- Developed new employee on-boarding documentation
- Implemented SharePoint site for hosting and organizing user reference materials
- Developed and managed resource library for employees seeking CEE credits

Technologies

ASP, JavaScript, PHP, Python, Perl, .NET, XML, SQL, AJAX
Epic, Cerner, Epiphany, OnBase, Clarity, Cloverleaf, Sybase, HL7, X12

Certifications

EpicCare Ambulatory, Epic Order Transmittal, Epic Referrals, Epic Advanced SmartTools
Epic Cognitive Computing, Epic In Basket Configuration, Lean, ITIL Foundation

Education

Purdue University B.S., School of Technology